

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 25. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 25.

Rome, Jan. 6.

ON the 2d instant a Genouese Caper, carrying the Imperial Colours, brought a French Ship, laden with Corn, which she took in the Mediterranean, into Civita Vecchia; the Gouvernour of which Place, at the Instigation of the French Consul, secur'd both the Vessels, and Cardinal Janson pretends that the French Ship ought to be set at Liberty, and the Commander of the Genouese Punish'd: But the Imperial Ambassador has sent a Gentleman to Cardinal Paulucci, the Pope's Secretary of State, to represent to him, that an Imperial Caper ought to be allowed the same liberty of Selling her Prize at Civita Vecchia, as the Chevalier Fourbin had of publickly exposing to Sale at Ancona, the Pillage which he brought from Croatia. The Cardinal de Medicis, Protector of the Affairs of France and Spain at this Court, having order'd the Emperor's Arms which were placed over his Palace Gate, on the right hand of the Pope's, as those of Spain are on the left, to be taken down, and the Arms of France to be put up in their stead; the Count de Lamberg the Emperor's Ambassador, has printed a Manifesto in the Nature of a Protestation against it, of which he has sent Copies to all the Cardinals by one of his Gentlemen, setting forth that such a Proceeding is unlawful and null; to the end it may not be cited as an Example of the Crown of France taking precedence of the Crown of Spain, whenever that Crown may be possess'd by a rightful Successor of the House of Austria.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Leghorne, Jan. 5. The Pearl, a Zealand Caper, has sent in hither a French Bark laden with Wool and Dates, and bound from Tripoli in Barbary to Venice. On the 26th of December arriv'd here in 21 days from Tunis, the Maria, an English Ship commanded by Thomas Million; and on the last of the same Month the . . . Galley, Anth. Stephens Commander; as did the Joseph, Capt. Jacob Porter the day after; the first in 26, and the other in 27 days from Falmouth. On the 2d of this Month arrived three English Merchant Ships, one commanded by William Arthur, in 28 days from Penzance; the Sun, John Perry from Sweden; the William and Mary, William Vicars from Falmouth. Yesterday came in the Clover Galley, Captain John Harvey from Falmouth.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 30.

Vienna, Jan. 17. The Regiment of Dragoons of Count Schlick, which lately arriv'd here from Hungary, and last Week past in review before the Emperor at the Palace of Favorita, and was found to be in very good condition and to consist of about 1000 Men, began their march on Monday last for Upper Austria. Yesterday 300 Hussars of the Garrison of Raab arriv'd here, which will likewise be sent into the Upper Austria. Count Horn the Duke of Meklenburg Swerin's Minister is gone from hence home, to finish a Treaty for 2 Regiments of Dragoons which his Master has offer'd to put into the Emperor's Service. The Envoy of Denmark has given notice to this Court, that the Recruits for the Danish Forces in Italy are come into the Country of Odenburg; whereupon an Imperial Commissary is order'd to go to receive them.

Heidelberg, Jan. 20. The Elector Palatine has order'd the Castle of this City to be fitted up for the reception of his Mother, who is to remove hither from Newburg on the Danube, which 'tis believ'd Count Monasterole, with the Bavarians that he has drawn together thereabouts, intends to Attack. Meantime Baron Iselbach, Gouvernour of that Place, is making the necessary Provisions for the defence of it.

They write from Frankfort of the 21st, That the Gouvernour of Keel has sent Advice that great firing of Cannon had been heard about Fryburg, from which it is conjectur'd that the French have again attack'd the Castle of Heitersheim.

Cologne, Jan. 23. Some days ago 100 Men of the Garrison of Rhinberg sallied out to make an attempt on the Line which the Confederates have drawn before that Place, but a Party coming at the same time to relieve the Guard, the French were so well receiv'd, that 20 of them were kill'd or wounded, and the rest taken and carried to Wesel.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Letters from Namur of the 13th advise, that the Count de Reignac, Gouvernour of Limburg, having form'd a design to surprize two Troops of Dutch Horse at Rangeradt, a Village in the Country of Juliers 13 Leagues from Limburg, and lying in the midst of the Enemy's Quarters, chose 60 Men, gave the Command of them to the Sieur Maquinet, and sent them out of the Town in small numbers, ordering them to Rendezvous at a certain place. On the 8th at Ten a clock at Night they arriv'd at Rangeradt, and got into the place by a breach which they had before taken notice of, and drew up in the middle of the place; the Enemy who was advertised of their coming and was under Arms at the Gates, came and charg'd them, but were beaten; two of their Officers and 13 Troopers were kill'd, and the Commander and 27 Horses taken, who were brought to Limburg on the 12th, cross the Enemy's Quarters, who pursu'd our Men tho' to no purpose. In this Action there were but 2 of the French kill'd and 2 wounded.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Jan. 26.

A Courier has brought Advice from Luxemburg, that Collonel la Croix, having convoy'd into Bonn a Sum of Money to pay that Garrison; in his return from thence being inform'd that the Castle of Saalfemburg was Besieg'd by some Dutch Troops commanded by Lieutenant-General Somerfield, with 5 Pieces of Cannon and 2 Mortars, he made a stow of attacking them on one side, and took an opportunity on the other, to convey 40 Men into the place, by which the Enemy were oblig'd to raise the Siege.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 30.

Madrid, Jan. 6. The King is expected here on the 15th. His Majesty having resolv'd to raise 23000 Men, Horse and Foot, for the Defence of the Kingdom, a Decree has been publish'd for applying a Million

Million and 86,000 Livres of his Revenues, which was formerly employ'd to pay several Pensions, towards the Maintenance of those Forces. There is a Million of Crowns sav'd out of the Galleons, of which Sum 300,000 Crowns are sent to the President of the Chamber of Commerce at Seville, to be employ'd in fitting out the Galleons which are design'd to be sent to the West-Indies. 300,000 more are sent to Badajoz, and divers Ports of Galicia and Biscay, for fortifying those Places. 50,000 are sent to Cadiz to carry on the new Works there; and 15,000 Crowns are to be paid to the King of Portugal in part of what is due to him for Negroes. An Officer is arriv'd here from the Marques de Bedmar, to represent to the Government the Necessity there is of sending into Flanders 8,000 Men to recruit the Spanish Troops there. And the Elector of Bavaria has written a Letter to the Duke of Montalto, to desire him to represent to the Junto the Necessity he is in of being assist'd with Money to enable him to defend himself against the Imperialists.

Hague, Jan. 28. We have Advice that the Count de Noyelles Governor of Bergen-op-Zoom, is marched out with a strong Detachment of that Garrison on some Expedition.

Vienna, Jan. 17. Prince Eugene, who arriv'd here on the 8th from Italy, is mightily care'd by all sorts of People. Mr. Stepney, Envoy of the Queen of England, to shew the Esteem the English Nation have for his Highness, gave him an Entertainment on the 15th, together with the Prince of Darmstadt, Prince Dietrichstein, and several more of the Prince's chief Friends.

London, Jan. 24. Collonel Leg, Uncle to the late Lord Dartmouth, and Ranger of Wickwood Forrest, died some days since; he was above a Hundred Years old.

Collonel Thomas Trenchard of Dorsetshire died on Friday Night last.

To the Nobility and Gentry.

A Gentleman in travelling, hath brought with him an Invention no ways exceeding 12 Inches, wherewith he can grind Chocolate finer and with greater Expedition than others with a Stone, and is of that nature, that it cannot draw any thing from the Nut, that the Undertaker can afford to sell the best Chocolate that can be made in England, from the best Spanish Nuts, called Crackers, made up with Loaf Sugar, enrich'd with plenty of the best Vanello 12 d. a pound cheaper than any in London, and is much better for making this way, as many Persons of Quality, Chocolate-makers and Stone-cutters do acknowledge, upon sight of the Invention, but more especially in melting the Chocolate. The Town is crowded with foul Chocolate, therefore to avoid being impos'd upon by Foreigners, in paying extravagant Rates for the best, you will find it cheaper, and as good as you can make it at home; it is nicely made up in small Cakes, Quarters or half Pounds. Take as small or great quantity as you please, and if misliked your Money again, and carriage paid from any part of England. The Chocolate is to be had, and the Invention to be seen, next door to the Bull-head a Milliners Shop in Dean-street between Hellburn and Red-Lion-Square.
